Seguin, Guadalupe County, Texas.

Present Owner: Amy Sheppard, Seguin, Texas.

Date of Erection: 1850's

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Joe Johnson

Present Condition: Bad

Number of Stories: One

Materials of Construction: Adobe mixed with river gravel.

Other Existing Records: None

Additional Data:

This house was built in the early 1850's by Joe Johnson, and was used first as a Post Office; it was later deeded to one of his slaves called Aunt Marguaret. It is of no particular architectural or historical significance, other than it was one of the first houses built in Seguin.

The house is one story and one room; it is adobe mixed with river gravel, and has a pitched roof; the woodwork is cypress and oak.

This information was contributed by Miss Dora Vaughn, Seguin, Texas.
